MIDNIGHT IN MANHATTAN & THE EMPORIUM AT N°8

The Emporium at N.8 opens its enchanted doors with the first frost of winter, it is the same every year! A place where everyone's dreams can come true, where the impossible becomes possible. This New year's Eve, for one night only, a select few will get the chance to experience the shop within closed doors, a soiree not accessible to the public and for you to explore London's most luxurious Emporium yourself.

The most magic of all is a New York snow globe, an enchanted token that when shaken, magically transports you to the City that never sleeps.

You're about to discover that while all toy shops are places of wonder, only one is truly magical, and the Emporium at N.8 has secrets of its own!

So charming and so exclusive, a Midnight celebration in the park is whatever you could ask for and more. The skyscrapers and buzzing streets will set the scene while the moon glow and the shining lamp posts will create the atmosphere – experience the enchantment of the city glowing lights and snowy white trees while you feast and dance under the winter starry sky.
